Having published the documents concerned with Shariatmadari, Moghaddam Maraghei and Hassan Nazieh in the book No. 5 of the Moderates, the present book contains documents about Abbas Amir Entezam (in addition to those included in book No. 10), Bahram Bahramian, Khosrow Qashqai, Sam Sanjabi, Ali Saifpour-Fatemi, Touraj and Fereidun Nasserli.

Like the previous book, explanatory notes are provided to further familiarize the reader(s) with the text of documents concerning every one of the above mentioned individuals, with the hope of having taken another step in exposing U.S. imperialism's local bases, while having frustrated America's efforts in placing deviate currents vis-a-vis the Islamic Revolution.

Real Name: Amir Abbas Entezam.

Code Name: S. D. Plod/1.

Occupation: Prime minister Bazargan's deputy, the provisional government's spokesman, and a liberation movement member.

The present documents about Amir Entezam are in the form of classified documents, which were completed or found after the publication of book 10 concerning Amir Entezam. These documents are indicative of the continuation of the C. I. A. 's operational tactics concerning exchange of information with the provisional government of Bazargan. Two more points can be distinctly noticed in addition to that which has been mentioned in book 10: 1- Amir Entezam had connections with the C. I. A. and with George Cave (Adelisk), a senior C. I. A. agent, since the beginning of 1340 (1961). 2- In appointing Amir Entezam as ambassador to Stockholm two objectives were pursued by the leaders of the Liberation Movement (provisional government). Firstly, that he would act as the agent of the provisional government for re-establishing its connections with the C. I. A. and exchanging information with it. Secondly he was to allure the Iranians living in Europe in to returning home.

OF RE ESTABLISHING RAPPORT. IT IS QUITE CLEAR COMPANY HOLD REACTION IN HIGH REGARD. THE FACT
CONVERT CONTACT WITH REACTION AND THIS NEVER OCC

CORNERED ABOUT HOW US ARE ASSESSING THE SITUATION
MARKED ABOUT REACTION'S ABILITY TO BRING EVERYTH
ABLE TO ASSURED HIM THAT IF THINGS CAME APART
HE'D FEEL THEIR OWN MISTAKES NOT ANYTHING THAT WE

2. SDP/1 GAVE NUMEROUS EXAMPLES OF HOW NAIV
MILITARILY WEAK THE GOVERNMENT IS. SENIOR OF TEHRAN AROUND THE CLOCK. HE SPENT FIVE DAYS
THE LAST TRIP AND OUTSIDE OF THE BRIEFING ONLY S
FOR SOME HOUR. THE POLITICAL WEAKNESS OF THE GOV
ADDED INFO INCREASED THE PERSON OF KHOMEINI. SEV SAID THAT HE HOPED AND PRAYED THAT NOTHING WOULD SDP/1 SAID THAT THEY NOW CONCLUDED THAT KHOME

3. SDP/OD/1 SAID THAT KHOMEINI WAS NO PARTY ADVISOR IN TUDH. HE PRETTY MUCH KEEPS HIS OWN PROBLEM IS THAT HE IS EXPOSED TO CLERICS CONTIN THE WEEK AND IT DOES INFLUENCE HIS THINKING. HE SPEND A LOT OF TIME THINKING UP WAYS OF TRYING TO MOVE FROM QUM TO TEHRAN WHERE THEY CAN GET INFLUENCE OF THE CLERICS AND WHERE THE GOVERNMENT MAKE EFFECTIVE USE OF HIS NATIONAL POPULARITY.

4. AT ONE POINT WE DISCUSSED THE TUDH PART A MARXIST MOVEMENT GROWING IN IRAN. SDP/OD/1 T AVERAGE IRANIAN WOULD BE HARD TO ATTRACT TO MARX PARTY. SDP/OD/1 SAID THAT THEY FELT THAT THE INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO DEPT. B OF SOJANUS COM SAID THAT THE TUDH AND MARXISTS WERE ONLY IN A PLICIT SOMETHING BEING DONE BY OTHERS. HE GAVE THE CASE OF KHOMEINI ORDERING THE WEARING OF THE DEMONSTRATION MOUNTED BY FEMALES AGAINST THE CHA HE ITSELF WAS NOT CONNECTED TO THE MARXIST OR THE TUDH, BUT THEY HAD TRIED TO THE DEMONSTRATION TO GIVE IT A MARXIST CAST. SAID THAT THEY WERE NOT CONCERNED ABOUT CURRENT CAPAB TUDH AND MARXISTS OR THE SOVIETS ABILITY TO LOG ACTIVITIES, BUT RATHER THE FUTURE ABILITY OF THE IN SUCH ACTIVITIES. SDP/OD/1 SAID THAT THEY ARE SOVIETS WILL BE HOSTILE TO THEM AND WORRIED ABOUT INFLUENCE OF AN ISLAMIC REPUBLIC ON THEIR BORDERS. THAT WE WILL BE ABLE TO PROVIDE INFORMATION ON S ACTIVITIES IN IRAN.

5. SDP/OD/1 SAID THAT THERE WAS HOPE IN THE THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD RECOGNIZE THE ISLAMIC DEPT. ADLESICK POINTED OUT THAT WE HAD RECOGNIZED AND IT HAD NOT BEEN AN IMPEDENCE TO GOOD RELATION APPEARS SOME CONCERN ON HIS PART THAT THE DELAY IN AMBASSADORS SOMEHOW SIGNALS AMERICAN DISPLEASUR RE PUBLIC. HE HOPED THAT AMBASSADORS COULD BE EXO IMMEDIATE FUTURE.

6. SDP/UTY/1 AND OTHERS CAME UP DURING THE CUBSIONS. SDP/OD/1 SAID THAT HE WOULD CONTACT HE HEARS OF ANY FIRM TRAVEL PLANS FOR SDP/UTY/1

7. OUR PARTING WAS VERY AMIABLE, AND WHAT THE FUTURE. SDP/OD/1 AGREED THAT WE SHOULD MAINT CONTACT WITH THE LIAISON IN TEHRAN IS WELL EST SDP/OD/1 AGREED. WE WILL HAVE TO LOOK INTO THE BE A GOOD IDEA TO SEE HIM ELSEWHERE IN EUROPE NOT HAVE TO CONTENT WITH HIS BODYGUARDS OF AT L HIS IRANIAN BODYGUARD.

Real Name: Bahram Bahramian.

Code Name: S, D. Arne/1.

According to the documents of the C. I. A., Bahramian was a member of the High Command of the Liberation Movement Organization and a friend of Bazargan. In June 1977 he was employed by the C. I. A. as a single channel of information for passing secrets about the so-called terrorist activities and about the opponents of the regime in Iran. In the beginning this co-operation with the C. I. A. was based on the understanding that he would pass word to the U. S. government about the views of his moderate political party through a certain channel with the hope that the U. S. government would do something for his party as a result of these contacts and for his support to the government of the Shah. He was of course prohibited from disclosing to his colleagues anything about his contacts with the C. I. A. After the Revolution, he desired to promote a perfectly open system in Iran and had the feeling that the U. S. government could play a significant role in this regard. For a long time he refused to accept any salary, but after Khurdat (June) he signed a memorandum of commitment and agreed to receive a salary, according to which the C. I. A. had to pay the instalments of his life insurance policy -- an amount equivalent to $100000 and to deposit $5000 annually in an indirect bank account. He was given the legal status of a permanent resident of America, and he was promised that he and his family would be given the above mentioned legal status as long as they stayed abroad.

Bahramian was given training in code-writing, code-telecommunication and security system. He possessed wireless transmitter Mx-350, through which the incharge of the C. I. A. station made contacts with him and asked for his help during the Bahman 58 (January 1979), seige of the embassy, after which he informed Yazdi about it. Afterwards the transmitter was taken from him by the C. I. A. and he was given lie-detection tests which he successfully passed.

His principal reports were about the leadership of the provisional government, Revolutionary Council and the clergy, which were of extreme value to the C. I. A., and he often gained very high marks for his reports. He was the source of information for 67 reports from Dey 57 (December 1978) to Shahrivar 58 (September 1979).

In Bahramian's file, several documents are concerned with the determination of an operational address in England for his use. These documents also indicate that as conditions in Iran worsened the C. I. A. did not find any other means to contact Bahramian except personally receiving information from him in Iran. In order to retain this connection they assigned one of their agents to receive reports from Bahramian, which could be sent under confidential cover by ordinary mail. The name and address of the agent could be seen on the documents.

Afterwards some changes were made regarding the maintenance and care of those technical instruments of communication that were in Bahramian's charge. Subsequently there are certain documents at the end of the file regarding the plans of his possible secret flight from Iran and other such activities for which the C. I. A. had prepared the forged documents for Bahramian in advance.

It is worth mentioning here that the documents related to the Liberation Movement Organization (document 9: book 24. ) give an account of the meeting that Muhammad Tawassuli of the Liberation Movement had in the company of one of the officials of the political section of the Espionage Den with this spy (Bahram Bahramian), that was held on Mehr 3, 57 (September 25, 1978). It was he who arranged this meeting on behalf of the Liberation Movement along with Muhammad Tawassuli.

1. RECOGNIZING PRINCIPLE IN QUESTION, FROM OUR VIEWPOINT WOULD NEVERTHELESS OPT FOR USING SAME NAME. ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF DOING SO LIES ONLY IN HOPE THAT NAME WILL BECOME FAMILIAR TO POSTMAN, FURTHER SUPPORTING NORMAL LOCAL PRACTICE OF DELIVERING MAIL TO ADDRESS RATHER THAN TO NAME OF KNOWN OCCUPANT. WE WOULD HOPE THAT MAIL FROM IRAN WOULD DISTRACT ATTENTION FROM MAIL FROM LIBYA AND VICEVERSA. USE OF DIFFERENT NAMES COULD LEAD POSTMAN TO WONDER HOW MANY PEOPLE HE HASN'T SEEN ACTUALLY LIVE THERE. COMMENT: REPORT APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN SOMEWHAT SUBSTANTIATED IN THE PRESS. LATER REPORTING INDICATED THIS GROUP'S PROPOSALS HAD BEEN TURNED DOWN. ANALYSTS REMAIN VERY INTERESTED IN MOVES BY

REF B SCENARIO FOR POSSIBLE SDURN EXFILTRATION FROM IRAN WITH PORTUGUESE DOCUMENTATION WORTH CONSIDERATION. WE FEEL HOWEVER THAT REQUIREMENT FOR ENTRY VISA IN ITSELF SHOULD NOT ELIMINATE CONSIDERATION OF LATIN AMERICAN OR OTHER NATIONALITY PASSPORT REQUIRING VISA. OUR LATEST INFORMATION ON TRAVEL TO IRAN IS IN THIS VISA-REQUIRED STATUS (RUTHERFORD REPORTED THAT HE RECEIVED ENTRY VISA IN ATHENS WITHOUT DELAY OR PROBLEM). OUR INFORMATION ON TRAVEL TO IRAN IN NON-VISA STATUS IS INCOMPLETE, PARTICULARLY WITH RESPECT TO THE HANDWRITTEN ENTRIES ON BOTTOM OF DEBARKATION CARD REQUIRED FOR DEPARTURE. EXFILTRATION IN THIS STATUS WOULD REQUIRE COLLECTION EFFORT TO FILL IN THIS GAP.

2. WE FEEL THAT IF IRAN ENTRY VISAS ARE NOW MORE READILY AVAILABLE THAN IN PAST, IT MIGHT EVEN BE POSSIBLE TO HAVE VISA LEGITIMATELY PLACED IN SUBJECT'S PASSPORT. IF NOT, EXEMPLARS FOR REPRODUCTION WOULD BE AVAILABLE. USE OF LATIN AMERICAN OR OTHER NATIONALITY PASSPORT REQUIRING ENTRY VISA SHOULD BE SERIOUSLY CONSIDERED. WE DO NOT HAVE BLANK PORTUGUESE

3. RUTHERFORD REPORTED THAT ON ARRIVAL IN IRAN, HE WAS QUESTIONED SEVERAL TIMES AT DIFFERENT POINTS DURING THE PASSPORT CONTROL/CUSTOMS EXAMINATION PROCEDURE ON HIS REASONS FOR TRAVEL TO IRAN AND HIS INTENDED LENGTH OF STAY. HE NOTICED NO EXTRAORDINARY CONTROL MEASURES ON DEPARTURE.

4. FOR TEHRAN: WE REALIZE THAT DOCUMENTATION EXFILTRATION IS ONLY POSSIBILITY AT THIS POINT; HOWEVER, SUGGEST THAT EFFORTS BE MADE TO EXAMINE PASSPORTS/DEBARKATION CARDS OF RECENT VISITORS IN BOTH VISA AND NON-VISA CATEGORIES.

SOURN/I. MR. BAHRAMIAN. SELF-EMPLOYED CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTOR. MARRIED, WITH AT LEAST ONE CHILD, A SON AGED ABOUT 12. U/I AGED ABOUT 40.

U/I, AS OF AUGUST 79, WAS A MEMBER OF AN INFORMAL GROUP ADVISING AND CONSULTING WITH PRIME MINISTER BAZARGAN. (IT IS RECALLED THAT HE MENTIONED TWO OR PERHAPS THREE NAMES OF OTHER MEMBERS; IT IS BELIEVED THAT ENTEZIM AND A MR. SAHABI WERE AMONG THEM.) IN THIS CAPACITY, HE REPORTED ON THE PLANS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE GOVERNMENT.

BETWEEN LATE JUNE AND THE SEIZURE OF THE EMBASSY, THERE WERE THREE OR FOUR MEETINGS WITH U/I, ALL OF THEM IN AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER. HIS INFORMATION REPORTING DURING THAT PERIOD CONCERNED A RURAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN PROPOSING THE MOBILIZATION OF UNEMPLOYED TECHNICIANS AND THE ~~USE~~ RESOURCES OF MINISTRIES SUCH AS ROADS AND HEALTH. (U/I WAS UNABLE TO RESPOND TO STATION QUERIES ABOUT SUCH MATTERS AS THE SUBSTANCE OF BAZARGAN'S MEETINGS WITH THE IMAM.)

IN LATE SEPTEMBER OR EARLY OCTOBER, AFTER U/I HAD MISSED TWO PRE-ARRANGED MEETINGS, SEVERAL UNSUCCESSFUL EFFORTS WERE MADE TO CONTACT HIM BY PHONE. HE WAS FINALLY REACHED AT HOME. HE SAID HE WAS WORRIED ABOUT HIS SAFETY, AS A 'GUARD' (PERHAPS A SURVEILLANT) HAD RECENTLY APPEARED OUTSIDE HIS HOME. HE SAID HE DID NOT KNOW TO WHAT ORGANIZATION THIS GUARD BELONGED, BUT THAT IN VIEW OF MR NAZIH'S DIFFICULTIES, HE WAS AFRAID HE MIGHT BE ARRESTED. U/I SAID HE HAD DECIDED TO ~~END~~ TERMINATE HIS ASSOCIATION WITH THE PRIME MINISTER, CLOSE HIS BUSINESS, AND LEAVE THE COUNTRY. HE SAID HE PLANNED TO LEAVE IRAN IMMEDIATELY AFTER A TRIP TO BALUCHISTAN (AS RECALLED) TO CONCLUDE SOME BUSINESS THERE. HE WAS ASKED TO MAKE PHONE CONTACT UPON HIS RETURN. HE DID NOT DO SO, AND THERE WAS NO SUBSEQUENT COMMUNICATION WITH HIM.

THE STATION REPORTED THIS DEVELOPMENT, AND HQS INSTRUCTED WOLOCK, EZNOVA, AND EZVID TO BEGIN CONTINGENCY PLANNING IN CASE U/I NEEDED HELP TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY. DETAILS OF SUBSEQUENT CORRESPONDENCE ARE NOT RECALLED, BUT IT IS BELIEVED THAT MACAO AND LEBANESE PASSPORTS WERE BEING CONSIDERED. AS THERE WAS NO FURTHER CONTACT WITH, NO ASSISTANCE WAS EVER ASKED OR OFFERED.

Real Name: Khusrow Qashqai.

Code Name: S. D. Rater/4.

In this section the documents concerned with Qashqai are contained, a part of which is related to the documents of the Foreign Affairs Ministry and another part is concerned with the documents of the C. I. A. (those belonging to the period between 1330-1343 Shamsi-Hijri (1951-1964) are related with the Iranian Foreign Ministry and the rest are related with the C. I. A. ).

A little attention to the dates and the contents of the documents related with the Foreign Affairs Ministry and Qashqai's meetings with the officials of the embassy (during 1952) is sufficient to reveal the extent of his association with the U. S. administration and the nature of his activities. In spite of his anti-Shah tendencies he was favourably inclined towards America and the West, and in this regard he never hesitated to express his urge to help them.

The C. I. A. documents concerned with Khusrow Qashqai are mostly composed of his reports, his meetings with the C. I. A. officials and his stand vis-a-vis the then current course of events in Iran. There is nothing available regarding his past record with the C. I. A.

Though he did not receive any salary from the C. I. A., his co-operation with America may have been on account of his intention to gain support from America in fulfilling his future ambitions concerning the Islamic Republic.

The principal reports and opinions of Khusrow Qashqai revolve around certain specific aims:

-By weakening the provisional government and secretly opposing the Islamic Republic, while outwardly, supporting it, he was planning to incite different political and military leaders into starting a series of operations to overthrow the government. In this connection he made contacts with Madani and asked him to supervise a military coup against the Imam and the Bazargan government. According to his own claims, Qashqai contemplated certain preventive, and strategic measures necessary for opposing the government and launching an armed struggle against the Islamic Republic. Contacts were also made with him from the side of Bakhtiyar and he was even offered payment for organizing a coup. During one of his meetings he speaks about his contacts with the Arab dissidents and that they will act as the suppliers of arms to the non-Arab tribes of the south every now and then.

- Qashqai was planning to bring out a publication in association with Madani, and he had informed the C. I. A. about this plan. The C. I. A., too, was thinking about the possibilities of bringing out a publication which would serve as their organ against the anti-American atmosphere prevailing in Iran and would counter the attacks against America. The C. I. A. was secretly planning to not only encourage Khusrow Qashqai in this regard but also to give him the material aid that he was asking for to aid in the printing and distribution of this publication. They advised him to take steps to select the material desired to be published.

Through these meetings and visits the C. I. A. wanted to attain the following aims:

- Obtain information about the Qashqai tribe and the possibilities of this tribe in confronting the Islamic Republic and the chances of exploiting it in emergency conditions, since they believed that the Qashqais were the only tribe besides the Kurds, who were in a position to put up active resistance.

- Obtain information about the security conditions in Khuzistan and Fars Provinces.

- To reach a political understanding with Madani, because Qashqai had a close relationship with him.

- To watch Qashqai in his anti-government activities. The appointment of Qashqai was meant for fulfilling different purposes such as influencing the National Front for promoting the pro-America moderate forces and supplying them with information and reports; arranging meetings with the Interior Minister Haj Sayed Jawwadi with the view of getting information about the future programmes of the provisional government concerning the elections; arranging meetings with Shariat Madari and Khaqani in order to establish a possible future programme; and meeting with brigadier general Jam with the hope of fulfilling, a certain function in a specified period of time. On the whole, the aim of using Qashqai as an intermediary and a catalyst agent was bringing together all the pro-American moderate forces throughout the various classes of society. (The document about this part can be seen with the documents concerning Shariat Madari).

Khosro QASHQAI was a Deputy to the 16th and 17th Majlis and a close advisor to Mossadeq on tribal affairs. He, along with several of his brothers, is in official exile from Iran and now lives in Geneva, although he is in the US at the moment. He is extremely active and vocal in opposition to the Shah's government, but is probably out of contact with most of the groups within Iran, except through his brother Mohammad Hosein, who is permitted to live in Tehran. He is reportedly addicted to drugs.

KHOSROW QASHQAI'S LETTER TO MOSSADEQ: Khosrow Qashqa'i, now in Europe, has written a letter to Dr. Mohammed Mossadeq, the former Prime Minister. He expresses his unhappiness in this letter about the state of the National Front. In his reply, Dr. Mossadeq wrote that he too is dissatisfied with the leaders of the National Front. Khosrow Qashqa'i has released both letters to the European press. (Diplomat 12/19/62)

Nov. 1947

Traveled in Switzerland and America.

April 1948

Returned to Iran.

1950

Deputy from Firuzabad to 16th Majlis; member of Agricultural Commission of Majlis.

Remarks:

Shortly after leaving the American College of Tehran in 1939, Khosro Khan assumed his tribal duties and since that time has spent most of his time in the provinces as compared with his brothers who spent most of their time in Tehran. Until his election to the 15th Majlis, he paid only periodic visits to Tehran and was the least publicized of the four brothers. In 1943 he was appointed Governor of Firuzabad, his duties consisting for the most part of keeping belligerent sub-tribal leaders in line and conferring from time to time with high-ranking officers of the Iranian Army. At that time the Qashqa'is were not in favor with the Central Government because of their previous pro-German sympathies and their refusal to disarm their tribesmen.

In August of 1944 Khosro was supplied with Government arms and ammunition and, with fifty followers, pursued and subdued his fugitive cousin Cheghis Khan.

In February, 1942, Khoero was involved in the "Semiran" incident. The Qashqai tribe led by him attacked the Semiran garrison, killing about 100 soldiers and executing the Commanding Officer. In 1946 during the Fars National Movement he participated in the fighting against the Government.

In October, 1947, after a series of disputes over disarming the tribesmen, he was granted a visa to the U.S. and Switzerland. Local comment concerning the trip attributed it to an effort on the part of the Qashqais to sooth the Shah's feelings..

In the present Majlis, Khoero is one of the four secretaries of the Majlis.

He is of medium height, stocky, an athlete, with heavy Turkish features, heavy black hair and a pleasant smile.

Preocious, consistently pro-American, anti-Russian and distrustful of the British.

SUB: Conversation with Khosro Quashqai

Last night at Mr. Melbourne's cocktail party I joined a conversation between Col. Hincke and Khosro Quashqai, which may be of interest to you.

Quashqai was holding forth about popular feelings against the Shah, and maintained that we would not find a single picture of the Shah in a public place today as the crowds will have ripped them all down. He added that he himself had a score to settle with the Shah because the Shah's father had killed his father, but added that the Shah was still useful. An argument also developed as to whether the Shah was Commander-in-Chief of the Army: Quashqai had maintained that American Military Aid was given to the Shah and not to Iran.

Some of Quashqai's assertions were so close to the Tudeh line that I felt constrained to ask him if he was a member of the National Front, which he said he was. No doubt Col. Hincke can give you further details, as the discussion was well advanced when I joined it.

Career:

1950 - February 1952: Deputy to 16th Majlis from Firuzabad. Vice-President of Majlis.

April 27, 1952: Deputy to 17th Majlis from Firuzabad.

Remarks:

Quashqai's election went unchallenged, based as it was on the votes of his tribesmen. While critical of some of Dr. Mosadeq's policies, furthermore, he has consistently and openly supported the government and is one of the National Front's most valuable assets.

Recently Quashqai delivered a bitter speech in the Majlis, attacking Americans for their alleged "sabotage" of the Mosadeq government during the brief premiership of Qavam. His friendship for various members of the American Embassy has, however, continued, and he has explained his outburst as an attempt to open American eyes to their mistake in failing to support the National Front government strenuously. He has further explained his objection to the U.S. military missions by insisting that the resulting equipment and trained men will be used against the interests of Iran. He appears to have chosen to stick with Mosadeq in the ever-widening split between Kashani and the Prime Minister, but his tendency toward intrigue on a master scale makes any such conclusion tenuous at best.

My dear Mr. Buckingham,

I am enclosing an office memorandum to you on a visit of Khoero Khan to Shiraz while I was there. I thought it might be of interest to you. I am giving Mr. Koren a carbon copy also.

My visit to Fars was most enjoyable. I flew to Shiraz on Saturday morning. I went out to Persepolis Sunday and on Monday and Tuesday day remained in Shiraz. I returned to Tehran by air on Tuesday afternoon.

I hope you and Mrs. Buckingham had an interesting trip. Mr. Gilfillen mentioned that he hoped you would visit Shiraz again.

I enjoyed meeting you and hope to have the pleasure of being with you and Mrs. Buckingham again.

Khoero KHAN, Recent Visit to Shiraz

While discussing informally and unofficially the general subject of the tribes with Mr. BAHMANBEGUI, Chief of Tribal Education Program of Point Four in Shiraz, I learned that Khoero KHAN had visited General AZIZI on Sunday, October 24. According to Bahmanbegui, Khoero Khan is presently living at Firuzabad.

Subsequently Mr. Donald Gilfillen, Provincial Director of Point Four in Shiraz told me that General Azisi was calling on him that afternoon (October 25). I suggested to Mr. Gilfillen that he casually mention the Khoero visit to the General. The following information was related to me by Mr. Gilfillen after his talk with General Azisi.

According to General Azisi a messenger from Khoero Khan called on him Sunday advising that Khoero was outside of the city and would like safe passage in order to talk with the General. The General said he promptly sent an escort and had Khoero Khan brought to his office. The General told Mr. Gilfillen that Khoero appeared very nervous. Azisi said he told Khoero he had no reason to feel insecure. Further that Khoero could travel freely anywhere without fear. However, the General said he told him that the Government still insisted that Khoero leave before a certain date or be subject to arrest. He said he told Khoero the Government in general and his command in Fars in particular were desirous of good relations with the tribes. The General said he told him there was to be no trouble with the tribes. However he said he told Khoero because of his activities last year in stirring up trouble it was absolutely mandatory that he leave. The General implied, according to Mr. Gilfillen, that if Khoero didn't get out upon this date (the General did not mention the date) the Army would come and get him out.

This ends information I received concerning the Gilfillen-Azisi conversation. In my earlier conversation, Bahmanbegui said that he believed Khoero Khan no longer had much support amongst the tribes. According to Bahmanbegui the support Khoero still enjoys is based solely on his wealth.

Background on Bahmanbegui: About 40 years old. Is a member of the Amaleh tribe. His father is in the mountains with his sub-tribe. Bahmanbegui is a graduate of the University of Tehran Law school. He directs the Point Four tribal education program which appears to be an excellent operation. He seems sincerely interested in his work.

He visited the United States in 1952 for six months on a private visit. This trip was mostly financed by Khosro Khan. He speaks good English. He told me that because he opposed Khosro in his abortive act of last year he has lost favor with him. He implied that he was active in forming an opposition to the Khan's acts.

Mr. Cuomo

Last night at Mr. Melbournes I joined Khosro Quashqai and Commander Pollard for a few moments. Quashqai was saying that the US had supplied the arms that killed innocent people and was therefore guilty of their murder. Pollard pointed out that all Military aid had been turned over to the Iranian Government. Quashqai replied that there had been no real Iranian Government for forty years but an Intelligence Service Govt. A Govt of Major Jackson, Dr. Zenner and Middleton. The point was wld the US now aid the real Iranian Govt. The arms had been given to the Shah in the past. At this point he said "I have a score to settle with the Shah and one day I will settle it". He said what Iran needs is a democratic Shah. At this point I left the group.

SUBJECT: Khosrow Khan QASHQAI

1. A reliable and sensitive source has reported that Khosrow Khan QASHQAI has received an invitation to visit the United States from his nephew, Amir Abdollah QASHQAI, a doctor residing at No. 1 Main Street, Chisholm, Maine.

2. Khosrow Khan QASHQAI, an Iranian citizen was born circa 1920 in Shiraz, Iran. He is one of the exiled leaders of the Qashqai tribe in Iran. The Qashqai leaders were forced to flee Iran about 1954 due to their continued opposition which at times led to armed revolt against the present regime of Iran. Subject presently resides in Munich, Germany where he maintains contact with all of the anti-regime elements residing abroad.

3. Should Subject accept his nephew's invitation to visit the United States, this Agency would appreciate having Subject's activities monitored and kept informed of his contacts.

4. In order to protect our source you are requested not to reveal the source of the above information in any conversations you may have with Subject.

He is interested in obtaining .45 caliber grease guns (M-3 S&amp;W), M&amp;M, 3.5 inch rocket launchers and plastic explosives. These he hopes to be able to get into Iran in order to conduct terrorist attacks on lines of communication. 5. He estimates that the next groups of tribes to join in resistance against the government are the Bakhtiari with the Kurds, with the exception of the Javanrudi following. 6. If he can obtain the necessary propaganda means, radios, loud-speakers, and broadcasting equipment, he intends to carry out a propaganda campaign against the government concurrently with his raids on communication lines. 7. His information is that the tribes to date have taken 2,500 rifles from the IIA and IIS in Fars. 8. He states that the British 10-shot rifle which is reportedly in Fars is a British WWII type rifle. 9. M-1 ammunition is now 5 Teumans (appr .66c) per round in Fars. 10. Khosrow Khan claims he is in close contact with Teimur Bakhtiar and they hope to use the latter's influence among the IIA officers in order to undermine the present regime. COMMENT: The source describes Khosrow Khan to be motivated by only one objective: i.e. the overthrow of KDM. Source states that as a means to this end, Khosrow Khan has become an avid student of guerrilla operations. Source, who recently visited with many Gushgulis, believes Khosrow Khan has more acceptance with the Gushgulis than is generally accepted. Source believes that Khosrow Khan has relative good information on the events which occur in Iran. While the estimates of the number of arms seized from the IIA and IIS are high, they are not beyond the realm of possibility. Reliable foreign military sources estimate loss of arms by the IIA may be at least this high; they state losses include 3-4 4.2 mortars and at least two truckloads of .30 caliber machine guns (estimated 30 to 40). In addition, the tribes through deceptive camp layouts have been the recipients of one complete drop of food and ammunition. COMMENT: (Of Preparing Officer) Even in Europe with discounts, $25,000 will not go far in purchasing automatic weapons, bazookas and communication equipment. About all Khosrow Khan could obtain would be enough material to fool some of the people some of the time as to his degree of outside backing. FIELD COORDINATION: CAS, STATE/DOL

SUBJECT: QASHQAI POLITICAL ACTIVITY AND MILITARY CONTINGENCY PREPARATIONS (DOI: EARLY JULY 1979)

SOURCE: A MEMBER OF THE QASHQAI TRIBE WHO IS A CONFIDANT OF A SENIOR QASHQAI TRIBAL LEADER WITH HIGH-LEVEL CONTACTS IN THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN. HIS REPORTING RELIABILITY HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

1. ALTHOUGH KHOSROW QASHQAI STILL SUPPORTS THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF PRIME MINISTER MEHDI BAZARGAN, HE SEES ITS AUTHORITY AS LIMITED AND STILL DECLINING, AND BELIEVES THAT WITHIN THE NEXT THREE MONTHS WIDESPREAD AND VIOLENT CIVIL DISORDER IS LIKELY TO ESTABLISH. HE IS THEREFORE PROCEEDING TO CONSOLIDATE ARRANGEMENTS WITH VARIOUS POLITICAL AND MILITARY LEADERS IN SOUTHERN IRAN AND IN TEHRAN IN ORDER TO PROTECT THE QASHQAI PEOPLE AND THEIR ALLIES FROM THE EFFECTS OF FURTHER EVAPORATION OF GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITY. QASHQAI ESTIMATES THAT HE IS SUPPORTED BY NINETY PERCENT OF THE POPULATION IN AREAS WHERE THE QASHQAI PEOPLE ARE NUMEROUS, AND THAT THERE IS SUBSTANTIAL SUPPORT ALSO IN ADJACENT PORTIONS OF SOUTHWEST IRAN. HE BELIEVES THAT HIS SUPPORTERS NOW NUMBER SOME FIVE MILLION. (FIELD COMMENT: SOURCE IS IN FULL SYMPATHY WITH KHOSROW QASHQAI'S OBJECTIVES, AND IS NOT EXPECTED TO CORRECT ANY EXAGGERATION IN THE LATTER'S ESTIMATES OF QASHQAI NUMERICAL STRENGTH AND POLITICAL INFLUENCE.)

2. THE QASHQAI'S ARE DEVELOPING CONTACTS WITH MILITARY COMMANDERS BOTH LOCALLY AND IN TEHRAN. THERE ARE CLOSE CONTACTS WITH THE COMMANDERS OF ARMORED AND INFANTRY UNITS IN SHIRAZ AND SAHABAD AND THERE IS CONTACT ALSO IN TEHRAN WITH BRIGADIER GENERAL ALI FALLAHI, HIS COMMANDER OF THE IRANIAN GROUND FORCES. (FIELD COMMENT: SOURCE DID NOT REVEAL THE SUBSTANCE OF THESE CONTACTS.) ATTEMPTS HAVE BEEN MADE TO DEVELOP SIMILAR CONTACTS IN THE AIR FORCE, BUT THESE HAVE NOT BEEN FRUITFUL, LARGELY BECAUSE OF THE PERPETRATION OF AIR FORCE ACTIVITY AND ORGANIZATION BY THE TECHNICIANS KNOWN AS HONOFARIS.

3. QASHQAI TRIBESMEN ARE ACQUIRING NEW WEAPONS. THE LATEST REPORT IS A SHIPMENT OF 400 KALASHNIKOV RIFLES. MOST QASHQAI WEAPONS ARE INDIVIDUAL WEAPONS, BUT THERE ARE SOME MACHINE GUNS AND FEW MORTARS.

SUBJECT: VIEW OF QASHGAI LEADER ON THE IRANIAN POLITICAL SITUATION

ORIG: A MEMBER OF THE QASHGAI TRIBE WHO IS A CONFIDANT OF A SENIOR QASHGAI TRIBAL LEADER WITH HIGH-LEVEL CONTACTS IN THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN. HIS REPORTING RELIABILITY HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

1. IN EARLY JULY 1979, QASHGAI TRIBAL LEADER KHOSROW QASHGAI GAVE CLOSE ASSOCIATES THE FOLLOWING INTERPRETATION OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN IRAN.

A. AYA OLLAH KHOMENI IS THE MOST INTELLENT AND LEAST REACTIONARY OF THE IMPORTANT MULLAHS, BUT HIS RELIGIOUS FUNDAMENTALISM INHIBITS HIM FROM DELEGATING REAL POWER TO THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN (PGOI). EVEN IF HE WERE DISSEED TO DO SO, THE REST OF THE RELIGIOUS ESTABLISHMENT WOULD EVENTUALLY ENJOY THE SUPPORT OF PERHAPS 70 PERCENT OF IRANIANS, BUT THIS SUPPORT IS ERODING AT A RATE WHICH COULD CUT IT IN HALF IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS. (FIELD COMMENT: I ASKED WHETHER QASHGAI CONSIDERS MULLAHS SUCH AS HAJI ABOLMAGHANI TO BE MORE FUNDAMENTALIST THAN KHOMENI. SOURCE SAID THAT QASHGAI REGARDS HAJI ABOLMAGHANI AS A POLITICIAN, NOT A RELIGIOUS FIGURE.)

B. THE BAZARGAN GOVERNMENT'S WEAKNESS DERIVES ONLY PARTLY FROM ITS DEPENDENCE ON KHOMENI. TWO OTHER IMPORTANT FACTORS ARE THE GOVERNMENT'S LACK OF POLITICAL EXPERTISE AND ITS INTERNAL DIVISIONS, THE RESULT OF WHICH IS THAT THE PGOI DOES NOT EXERCISE THE POWER IT ALREADY HAS. (SOURCE COMMENT: QASHGAI DID NOT DESCRIBE THE INTERNAL DIVISIONS OR IDENTIFY AREAS IN WHICH THE GOVERNMENT IS MISSING OPPORTUNITIES TO MAKE ITS AUTHORITY FELT.)

C. TWO FACTORS ARE LIKELY TO COMBINE TO PRODUCE RENewed SEVERE CIVIL DISORDER. ONE IS THE GROWING TENSION AMONG POLITICAL GROUPS, EACH OF WHICH, MORE OR LESS, REGARDLESS OF IDEOLOGY, AIMS

ACQUIRING A MONOPOLY OF POWER. SECOND IS THE PROSPECT OF SEVERE ECONOMIC HARDSHIP. THE GOVERNMENT CONTINUES TO SUSPEND FUNDING OF PUBLIC WORKS PROJECTS WHILE IT LOOKS FOR EVIDENCE OF PAST FINANCIAL ABUSES, WITH A RESULTING INCREASE IN UNEMPLOYMENT WHICH IS COMPOUNDED BY THE DISTORTION OF THE RURAL ECONOMY, WHERE IT BECOMES COMPLICATED TO SEE, FOR EXAMPLE, IMPORTED FROZEN MEATS SOLD IN VILLAGES. THESE IMPORTS ARE NOW SUSPENDED, AND THE RURAL ECONOMY IS PREPARED NEITHER TO SUPPLY THE CITIES NOR TO MEET ALL ITS OWN NEEDS.

IT HAS NOW BEEN SIX MONTHS SINCE THE PRESENT REGIME
TOOK POWER IN IRAN. IT HAD BEEN HOPED THAT IF THE IRANIS WERE LEFT MORE OR LESS ALONE FOR A PERIOD OF TIME A STABLE GOVERNMENT, AND RELATIVELY PRO-UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT MIGHT EMERGE. SUCH HAS NOT BEEN THE CASE, AND WE ARE FACED WITH CON-SIDERABLE INSTABILITY IN IRAN, GROWING SOVIET INVOLVEMENT NEAR

SITUATION WE WISH TO HAVE COVERT ACTION MECHANISMS

SOURCE : A MEMBER OF THE QASHQAI TRIBE WHO IS A CONFIDANT OF A SENIOR QASHQAI TRIBAL LEADER WITH HIGH-LEVEL CONTACTS IN THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN. HIS REPORTING RELIABILITY HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

1. AS OF EARLY SEPTEMBER 1979, AYATOLLAHS MOHAMED HOSSEIN BEHESHTI AND HASSAN LAHOUTI WERE ATTEMPTING TO PERSUADE AYATOLLAH RUHOLLAH KHOMEINI THAT THE INEFFECTIVENESS OF THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN (PGOI) CAN BEST BE REMEDIED BY REPLACING PRIME MINISTER MEHDI BAZARGANI WITH ADMIRAL AHMAD MADANI, CURRENTLY GOVERNOR OF KHUZESTAN PROVINCE. (SOURCE COMMENT: KHOMEINI'S DECISION, IS NOT YET KNOWN, BUT THERE IS REASON TO BELIEVE THAT KHOMEINI IS PLEASED WITH MADANI'S SUCCESS IN KEEPING ARAB DISSIDENCE IN KHUZESTAN UNDER CONTROL.) (FIELD COMMENT: A RELIABLE SOURCE SAID ON 6 SEPTEMBER THAT BEHESHTI IS GENERALLY THOUGHT TO BE PERSONALLY HOSTILE TO MADANI.)

2. QASHQAI TRIBAL LEADER KHOSROW QASHQAI HAS RECOMMENDED TO ADMIRAL MADANI THAT THE LATTER LEAD A MILITARY COUP AGAINST KHOMEINI AND THE BAZARGAN GOVERNMENT. MADANI RESPONDED THAT SUCH A MOVE AT THIS TIME WOULD BE PREMATURE; IN THIS CONTEXT HE ALLUDED TO THE CONTINUED WEAKNESS OF THE ARMED FORCES.

3. MADANI IS DEEPLY CONCERNED ABOUT THE SECURITY SITUATION IN KHUZESTAN PROVINCE. ALTHOUGH ARAB DISSIDENT ACTIVITY HAS DECLINED IN PAST WEEKS, MADANI HAS INFORMATION INDICATING THAT ORGANIZING ACTIVITY AMONG THE ARABS HAS GREATLY ACCELERATED (FIELD COMMENT: SOURCE HAD NO DETAILS ON THIS SUBJECT.)

1. ACCORDING TO QASHQAI TRIBAL LEADER KHOSROW QASHQAI THE TRIBE AND ITS ALLIES IN FAR AND ADJACENT PROVINCES HAVE A TOTAL OF 20,000 LIGHT WEAPONS. THESE ARE ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY INDIVIDUAL ARMS, ALTHOUGH THERE ARE ALSO A FEW MORTARS AND LIGHT MACHINE GUNS. (FIELD COMMENT: IT SEEMS LIKELY THAT THE CLAIMED NUMBER OF LIGHT WEAPONS IS EXAGGERATED. SEE NIT-10,658, TDFIRDB-315,12271-79, FOR EARLIER INFORMATION FROM THE SAME SOURCE ON QASHQAI ACTIVITY.) ORGANIZATIONAL ACTIVITY DESIGNED TO FACILITATE THE EMPLOYMENT OF THESE FORCES IS WELL ADVANCED, AND KHOSROW QASHQAI BELIEVES THAT HE COULD MOVE AS MANY AS 20,000 QASHQAI AND ALLIED TRIBESMEN TO TEHRAN WITHIN THREE DAYS. THE ORGANIZATION OF THE LOGISTICS AND TRANSPORTATION ASPECTS OF SUCH A MOVE IS BEING CONDUCTED UNDER THE PRETEXT THAT THE QASHQAI MIGHT HAVE TO REACT AGAINST A THREAT TO AYATOLLAH RUHOLLAH KHOMEINI. IN FACT, QASHQAI WANTS TO BE PREPARED TO CONTRIBUTE MILITARY FORCE TO KHOMEINI'S OVERTHROW WHEN THE TIME IS RIGHT.

2. THE POLITICAL PROGRAM OF THE QASHQAI FORCES LOYAL TO KHOSROW QASHQAI CALLS FOR CONSOLIDATION OF CONTACTS IN THE IRANIAN MILITARY; THEY SEEK ALSO TO ESTABLISH AN ALLIANCE WITH SECULAR POLITICIANS SUCH AS THE YOUNGER GENERATION IN THE NATIONAL FRONT.  1. QASHGAI TRIBE LEADER K. CSROW Q. A. S. Q. A. I. HAS RECEIVED

 THESE MESSAGES IS TO SOLICIT QASHGAI SUPPORT FOR BAKHTIAR'S EFFORT TO BUILD AN ALTERNATIVE TO THE ISLAMIC REGIME DOMINATED BY AYATOLLAH KHOMEINI. (SOURCE COMMENT: QASHGAI SAID THE LAST NOTE FROM BAKHTIAR ARRIVED DURING THE

REPORT CLASS: SECRET -- UNINTEL -- NOFORN -- NO CONTRACT -- OR CON
COUNTRY: IRAN

SUBJECT: COMMENTS OF KHOSROW QASHGAI ON SENIOR IRANIAN OFFICIALS AND ON QASHGAI TRIBE POLITICAL ACTIVITY (DOB: MID-OCTOBER 1929)

SOURCE: A MEMBER OF THE QASHGAI TRIBE WHO IS A CONFIDANT OF A SENIOR QASHGAI TRIBAL LEADER WITH HIGH-LEVEL CONTACT IN THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN. HIS REPORTING RELIABILITY HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

1. QASHGAI TRIBAL LEADER KHOSROW QASHGAI SAID IN MID-OCTOBER 1979 THAT, OF THE FIVE MOST INFLUENTIAL LAYMEN IN THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN (PJOI), HE REGARDS ONLY ONE AS BEING A CONVINCED REVOLUTIONARY. THIS IS MUSTAFA CHAMRAN, MINISTER OF DEFENSE. THIS IS MUSTAFA SAID HE HAD NOT SEEN CHAMRAN IN ABOUT TEN YEARS AND COULD NOT BE CERTAIN THAT HIS IDEOLOGICAL FERVOR HAD SURVIVED THROUGH THIS PERIOD. QASHGAI SAID THAT FOREIGN MINISTER IBRAHIM YAZDI, DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER SADEGH TABATABA'I AND NATIONAL IRANIAN RADIO AND TELEVISION DIRECTOR SADEGH QOTBZADEH ARE ESSENTIALLY OPPORTUNISTS, MORE CONCERNED WITH THE ACQUISITION AND EXERCISE OF POWER THAN WITH THE TRANSFORMATION OF IRANIAN SOCIETY ON THE BASIS OF SOME COHERENT POLITICAL PROGRAM. QASHGAI EXPRESSED PARTICULAR CONTEMPT FOR QOTBZADEH, WHOM HE DESCRIBED AS FOR SALE TO ANYONE WHO PROVIDES HIM THE LUXURIES AND PERQUISITES HE CRAVES.

2. OF YAZDI, QASHGAI SAID THAT HE IS MORE COMPLICATED THAN QOTBZADEH, VERY AMBITIOUS AND DEFINITELY NOT A REVOLUTIONARY IDEOLOGUE. KHOSROW SAID THAT HE REGARDS TABATABA'I AS MOTIVATED BY SELF-INTEREST AS MUCH AS THE OTHERS; HE SAID THAT HE REGARDS INTERIOR MINISTER HASHEM SABERGHIAN AS THE OTHER MOST INFLUENTIAL LAYMAN IN THE GOVERNMENT AND THAT HE DOES NOT THINK HIM TO BE MORE REVOLUTIONARY THAN, FOR EXAMPLE, YAZDI. KHOSROW ADDED THAT HE REGARDS ALL FIVE OF THESE OFFICIALS AS TOTALLY DEPENDENT ON AYATULLAH RUMOLLAH KHOMEINI FOR THEIR POSITIONS OF INFLUENCE, SAYING THAT, AS LONG-TIME EXILES,

THEY HAVE NO PERSONAL CONSTITUTIONS (INSIDE IRAN)

3. QASHGAI SAID THAT HE CONTINUES TO DEVELOP CONTACTS FOR THE QASHGAI TRIBE IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE COUNTRY. HE CLAIMED THAT NEW CONTACTS HAVE BEEN MADE AMONG BOTH ACTIVE DUTY AND RESERVED FORCES CHIEF OF STAFF AND PERPAR. QASHGAI SAID THAT THE PURPOSE OF THE RELATIONSHIP IS TO PERPAR. QASHGAI SAID THAT SUCH AS THE DEATH OR DISABILITY OF KHOMEINI. QASHGAI SAID THAT FALLAHI HAS NEVER EXPLICITLY ENDORSED HOSTILITY TO KHOMEINI AND THE ISLAMIC STYLE OF GOVERNMENT.

4. QASHGAI SAID THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE QASHGAI TRIBE HAD QUIETLY BUT FORMALLY CANCELLED ORDERS FOR THE QASHGAI TRIBE TO COME AFTER THE ORDER WAS PUBLISHED, ARGUING THAT SECURITY OF THE QASHGAI AREA IS BEST SERVED BY ALLOWING THE TRIBESMEN TO KEEP THEIR ARMS. ACCORDING TO QASHGAI, THE REVOLUTIONARY COUNCIL ORDERED THE GOVERNMENT IN EARLY SEPTEMBER NOT TO PURSUE IT. QASHGAI ESTIMATED THAT MORE THAN 20 PERCENT OF THE QASHGAI WOULD HAVE CONSENTED TO DISARM THEIR ARMS WITHOUT A FIGHT. (FIELD COMMENT: QASHGAI WEAPONS ANNOUNCED BY THE ISLAMIC REVOLUTIONARY PROSECUTOR IN THE VIOLENCE WHICH FOLLOWED THE CLOSING OF THE LIBERATION NEWSPAPER "MAYANDEGAN" IN MID-AUGUST.)

OF QASHGAI LEADER ON HIS MEETING WITH KHOMEINI CURRENT POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS (OOI: LATE OCTOBER)

MEMBER OF THE QASHGAI TRIBE WHO IS A CONFIDANT OF A SENIOR QASHGAI TRIBAL LEADER WITH HIGH-LEVEL CONTACTS IN THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN. HIS REPORTING RELIABILITY HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED.

1. SPEAKING IN LATE OCTOBER 1979, QASHGAI TRIBAL LEADER KHORRAM SAID HE HAD HAD A PRIVATE MEETING AT HIS OWN INITIATIVE WITH MOHAMMAD KHOMEINI ON 25 OCTOBER. HE SAID HE REQUESTED KHOMEINI REQUESTING THE MEETING WAS ALLUDED TO THE CONDUCT OF SOME CLERGYMEN, AND THAT HE ELABORATED ON THIS THEME THROUGHOUT THE MEETING. HE SAID KHOMEINI LISTENED, AND WAS FORMAL HE DID NOT REPLY TO THE COMPLAINTS. (SOURCE COMMENT: QASHGAI DID NOT SAY WHAT, IF ANY, SPECIFIC CASES HE HAD PRESENTED TO KHOMEINI.) KHOMEINI REFERRED TO THE SITUATION IN KHUZESTAN, PRAISING GOVERNOR AHMAD MANSOURI FOR HIS WORK THERE. HE ASKED QASHGAI TO ENLIST HIS TRIBE'S RESOURCES TO HELP MADANI CONTROL THE SECURITY SITUATION IN KHUZESTAN. (SOURCE COMMENT: MADANI HAD SEEN KHOMEINI ON 24 OCTOBER.)

2. ACCORDING TO QASHGAI, THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE REVOLUTIONARY GUARDS (PASDARAN) FROM BANDAS ANZALI AFTER THE RECENT DISTURBANCES THERE WAS ORDERED BY MADANI. HE SAID THAT THIS INCIDENT HAS INTENSIFIED THE PASDARAN LEADERSHIP'S REGRETMENT OF MADANI, WHO HAD PREVIOUSLY IMPOSED FIRMS CONTROL ON PASDARAN ACTIVITY IN KHUZESTAN. (SOURCE COMMENT: QASHGAI SEEMED TO BE UNDER THE IMPRESSION THAT DEFENSE MINISTER MUSTAFI MANSOURI IS ALSO HOSTILE TO MADANI BUT OFFERED NO EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT OF HIS BELIEF.) (FIELD COMMENT: THE PORT OF BANDAS ANZALI, FORMERLY BANDAS BAKHAYI, WAS PLACED UNDER NAVY CONTROL AFTER A SERIES OF CLASHES BETWEEN FISHERMEN AND REVOLUTIONARY AUTHORITIES. THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE PASDARAN WAS REPORTED IN THE PRESS.)

SDROTTER/4: KHOSROW QASHQAI.
QASHQAI TRIBAL LEADER. RESIDES
SHIRAZ. MARITAL STATUS UNKNOWN.
AGE 50-55. RESIDED W. GERMANY AND U.S. BEFORE REVOLUTION.

Met in Tehran approximately every three to four weeks, either in his hotel room or picked up by car. Used Sheraton and Inter-Continental hotels.

Purpose of Contact: 1) To advise sources of information on Khuzestani Arabs, including organization, leadership, and any involvement with or support from Iraq; 2) Information on the security situation in Fars and Khuzestan Provinces; 3) Political plans of Admiral Madani.

Re 1): In October, Mr. Q said he had been informed about two Khuzestani Arabs, smugglers by trade, who might be able to provide the desired information. Mr. Q was to provide names and other pertinent data in November. Re 2): Mr. Q provided information on his efforts both to guard ~~against~~ against threats to the Revolution and to avoid the stationing of Pasdaran and Komitehs among the Qashqai people. Described efforts to acquire friends for the Qashqai tribe among military officers and in the person of Adm.
Madani. Re 3) Mr. Q described Madani's interest in seeking the Presidency of the Republic under the new constitution.

Mr. Q described the weekly newspaper he wanted to sponsor in cooperation with Admiral Madani. Most of the information involved the reasons for continued postponement of publication, primarily the absence from Iran of the proposed editor (name not known). Paper was to be published in Tehran in about 70,000 copies per edition. We were interested, in principle, in Payment; None. A U.S. visa was obtained for Mr. Q's sister.

Kareem Sanjabi:

The documents indicate that the C. I. A. was interested in talking to Sanjabi on the condition that he would not subsequently insist on meeting the Security Council or the White House. With the approval of the U. S. State Department, the C. I. A. intended to send one of their agents in the guise of a high ranking official from the State Department's special desk dealing with Iranian affairs to meet him, but due to his ill-health this meeting did not materialize until Shahrivar 20 (September 11). The subsequent telegram about Sanjabi is dated Aban 8 (October 30), and as the documents referred to in the above-mentioned document could not be traced materialization or non-materialization of this meeting is not known. The documents in this section indicate that Sam Sanjabi, the son of Karim, was working as a contact for the C. I. A. and his father himself had a very close association with the C. I. A.

COUNTRY: IRAN

SUBJECT: DARIOUSH FOROUHAR'S REMARKS ON IRANIAN CABINET SHUFFLE
(OOI: 29 SEPTEMBER 1979)

SOURCE: A GENERALLY RELIABLE IRANIAN BUSINESS EXECUTIVE.

1. ON 29 SEPTEMBER 1979, DARIOUSH FOROUHAR SAID THAT HE HAD ACCEPTED THE MINISTER WITHOUT PORTFOLIO POSITION IN THE NEW IRANIAN CABINET BECAUSE THE REVOLUTIONARY COUNCIL WANTED THE BENEFIT OF HIS PRESTIGE IN THE CABINET. FOR HIS PART, FOROUHAR DID NOT WANT TO CONTINUE AT THE HEAD OF ANY SPECIFIC MINISTRY FOR FEAR OF BEING ACCUSED AND INVESTIGATED AT SOME TIME IN THE FUTURE, LIKE HASSAN NAZAH, FORMER CHIEF OF THE NATIONAL IRANIAN OIL COMPANY. (FIELD COMMENT: PRIOR TO THE CABINET SHAKEUP, FOROUHAR WAS MINISTER OF LABOR.)

2. FOROUHAR SAID THAT THE FORMER MINISTER OF SCIENCE AND EDUCATION, DR. ALI SHARIATI-MADARI, WAS NOT ON THE LIST OF MINISTERS TO BE CHANGED ORIGINALLY, BUT SHARIATI-MADARI HAD SUBMITTED HIS OWN RESIGNATION ON 27 SEPTEMBER IN PROTEST AGAINST THE OTHER CABINET CHANGES. (SOURCE COMMENT: DR. ALI SHARIATI-MADARI IS A DISTANT RELATIVE OF THE WELL-KNOWN AYATOLLAH HAJE SHARIATI-MADARI).

3. ACCORDING TO FOROUHAR, THE FOLLOWING PERSONS ARE ON THE REVOLUTIONARY COUNCIL: BANI-SADR, GHOIBZADEH, AYATOLLAH KHAMENEI AND AYATOLLAH RAFSANJANI. SDVALID/I WAS NOT CERTAIN FROM FOROUHAR'S REMARKS WHETHER HE MEANT THAT THESE ARE THE ONLY PERSONS ON THE REVOLUTIONARY COUNCIL.

Real Name: Ali Saifpur Fatemi.

Code Name: S. D. Market.

S. D. Market (Ali Saifpur Fatemi) was a professor of economics at an American university and was employed as source of information on the political matters of Iran in Azar 58 (November 1979). His secret motive in working for the C. I. A. was that America should continue to support the Iranian moderates, so that through them a solution to the political problems of Iran could be found. He was residing in America as a permanent resident and had visited Iran several times in connection with his work at the International Training Centre of Iran.

In view of the information given by another spy about S. D. Market to the C. I. A. official to the effect that in all probability the charges of embezzlement, misappropriation and corruption against Ardshir Zahidi are also directed towards him (S. D. Market), the C. I. A. considered the probable dangers threatening him and did not intend to exert more pressure on him by making further contact.

 these assurances and could if necessary remind Government of them.

Timeliness of renewed action with Justice Department is suggested by recent incident with student agitators involving Iranian Foreign Minister

Tehran

Dear Martin:

Yesterday Ali Fatemi's attorney called to say the Immigration Service had granted Fatemi's request to change his status to that of permanent resident. This was later confirmed by L/SCA, which maintains liaison with the INS. When I mentioned our interest, for political reasons, in knowing in advance about decisions of this kind, I was told that no doubt the Special Inquiry Officer, acting in a quasi-judicial manner, simply informs the applicant once the decision is made. Fortunately, the decision was not based on a claim that Fatemi would be persecuted if he were deported to Iran. Most probably the decision, as in similar cases, was because Fatemi has an American citizen wife and child, so when Fatemi's deportation might work a hardship.

The Department continued throughout the proceedings to maintain its position, originally stated in 1964, that a change of status would have an adverse effect on our relations with Iran. We were overruled by the INS which has the responsibility under the law for making decisions like this.

While this is certainly unfortunate in terms of our foreign relations, Sen Schweyer and I believe that the Department employed every legitimate administrative resource at its command, short of claiming overriding national interest, to see to it that the responsible agency was fully aware of the foreign policy aspects of the case. We would of course be interested in learning of any reaction in Tehran.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

by L/SCA

INS Action on Ali FATEMI

Ali Mohammad Reif Far FATEMI, the subject of the attached letter, has been President of Iranian student organizations in the U.S. and the power behind the two nationalist oriented Iranian student publications Iran Shahr and Doneshju. He has been involved in numerous anti-regime activities, notably the anti-Shah sit-in at the Iranian Embassy in Washington in January 1963 and demonstrations at the United Nations in September and October of the same year. The Iranian Embassy, which in 1961 had refused to return Fatemi's passport because of his anti-Shah political activities in the U.S., in 1963 refused to re-see his student permit.

Fatemi was born on 15 May 1935 in Isfahan and is the nephew of Prime Minister Mossadegh's Foreign Minister, Dr. Hossein Fatemi, who was executed on 10 November 1954. The Fatemi family, motivated in large measure by a desire for revenge following the execution of their kinsman, are perhaps the hardest core group of anti-Shah Iranians. Ali, a "student", is married to the former Jalal Amir Jamasobi (an Iranian national who became a naturalized U.S. citizen) and is resident in New Jersey.

In September 1964 the New Jersey District Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization turned down his application for a change of status to permanent resident and advised him that if he did not depart the U.S. voluntarily before October 12, 1964, his departure would be enforced. Upon receipt of the INS note, Ali Fatemi accompanied by his uncle Masroolah Fatemi, a professor at Fairleigh Dickinson University at Madison, New Jersey, requested the assistance of New Jersey's Senator Case to stay the INS deportation order on the grounds that Fatemi would be subjected to persecution if returned to Iran. Ali Fatemi, who is also acquainted with and enjoys the friendship of Justice William Douglas and Senator Robert Kennedy, apparently was able to block the 1964 deportation efforts of the INS.

There are reports that Ali Fatemi met Ahmed Ben Bella at the United Nations in 1963 and favorably impressed the former Algerian President who invited him to visit Algeria. Following this meeting, the Algerian Embassy in Washington reportedly issued an Algerian passport to Ali who then went to Algeria where he reportedly underwent paramilitary training. Ali is also reported to have made several trips to Europe during 1964 and 1965 contacting various National Front and other opposition elements, but the documentation he used to travel from and re-enter the US is not known.

Real Name: Touraj Nasserli.

Code Name: S. D. Paquin.

Touraj Nasserli was a professor at the Sahrif Technical University and had contacts with the C. I. A. before the Revolution and had sent three reports to the C. I. A. till the fall of Bakhtiyar. Following the Revolution due to the security problems a time gap appeared in his relationship with the C. I. A., but after the Revolution the C. I. A. decided to reestablish contacts with him. During his telephone contact with Ganjian (code name of one of the C. I. A. agents at Tehran Station) he told him that he was a member of the purging committee of the Sharif Technical University and could not visit him in person for security reasons but would like to continue telephone contacts.

In the documents collected from the political section of the Espionage Den concerning the moderates, there is a document dated February 12/78, mentioning the meeting of Dr. Touraj Nasserli with John Stempel, one of the officials of the political section.

Touraj Nasserli was responsible for introducing his brother Faridun (S. D. Paquin/1) to Ganjian (a C. I. A. agent). In Mordad 1357 (July 1978) Faridun was an assistant to the Interior Minister and was his deputy in the Budget and Planning Organization. In Shahrivar 1357 (August 1978) he became an official employee of the C. I. A., and it was decided that $750 would be deposited in his bank account every month. He supplied information about the plans and aims of the Iranian government, proceedings of the Cabinet and gave political reports. He also used to receive information from his friends in the army and other military and intelligence agencies.

After initial pleasantries, Ward asked Nasseri why he choose to leave the Ministry of Labor and if he planned to continue a government career. Nasseri emphasized his respect for the new Minister of Labor, Manuchehr Azmoun, repeating several times that he was well qualified for the position. He pointed out however, as he has for nearly six months, that he and Dr. Azmoun disagree on some fundamental questions concerning the organization of the Ministry and that, as far as their two personalities were concerned, there is a basic "difference de gout." Thus, his departure from the Ministry was inescapable. Moreover, Nasseri pointed out he has been a Senior Deputy Minister for over three years and he is interested in something better (namely a ministry of his own). The question of whether he continues in the government or finds employment elsewhere has not been settled. Nasseri wishes Prime Minister Hoveyda's "blessings" before leaving government service altogether. He explained to Ward that he did not wish to leave the public with the impression that he was leaving government service because in the last round of appointments of cabinet ministers he was not named. Nasseri claims to believe that high ranking government officials should regularly be transferred to positions in the private sector and successful executives in the private sector be brought into the Iranian Government, thus, constantly renewing the pool of management expertise available to both sectors. Nasseri would prefer a job in the

HIS PRESENT STATUS IN THE IRO IS STILL UNCERTAIN. HE HAS RESIGNED HIS POSITION AND MUST FACE INVESTIGATION BY THE NEW REGIME, BECAUSE OF THIS HE HAS REQUESTED NO MEETINGS UNTIL LATE APRIL 1979. NEXT MEETING SCHEDULED 27 APRIL. HE WISHES TO RETAIN HIS RELATIONSHIP WITH STATION, THOUGH HE WOULD PREFER TO NOT HAVE TO MEET CLANDESTINELY. HE WAS SPOTTED AND RECRUITED
IN SEPTEMBER 1976. SINCE RECRUITMENT HE HAS PROVIDED INFO ON GOI PLANS AND INTENTIONS, CABINET ACTIVITIES, AND POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS. HE HAS ALSO OBTAINED USEFUL INFO FROM HIS CONTACTS

private sector but will remain in government service if the Prime Minister insists.

Nasseri confided in Ward that he has been offered the Governor Generalship of either Isfahan or Shiraz, whichever he would prefer. Though he is not interested in living in the "provinces." As Nasseri explains it, the logistics of maintaining a fully staffed residence in a provincial capitol, in Tehran, and in London is too much of a headache. Nasseri has also been asked by his old friend Dr. Shojaedin Sheikholeslamzadeh, Minister of Health, to assume the responsibilities as manager of Iran's billion dollar a year Social Services Fund. This Fund is the largest single investment fund in Iran and the position of Director brings with it several fringe benefits including a $3,000 a month salary, twice the salary which Nasseri earned as Deputy Minister of Labor. Nevertheless, Nasseri said he would prefer to leave government service altogether and work in the private sector. He claims he has been offered the position of consultant to a large multi-national firm, which he would not name, at a salary of $10,000 a month.

Government Operations in Iran

Ward asked of Nasseri if he had noticed in the past three years any changes, good or bad, in the organization and operation of the Iranian Government. Nasseri began his reply by stating that there were certain things in Persia that would never change and that there are certain things about governments that would never change. Ministries still tended to be private fiefs of ministers, and there was little or no coordination between ministries at the working level since no good Persian would try to "interfere" with the running of his colleague's domain. Nasseri felt, however, that there was stronger and better coordination at the top levels of government than when he entered government service. While dishonesty and inefficiency still existed in the Iranian Government, Nasseri pointed out that they exist in any government and he felt there were fewer instances today than there had been in the past. Working level personnel are generally better educated now than in the past and most Iranian ministries are beginning "to operate like European ministries." In general, Nasseri felt that there was less wastage than in the past. Ward asked him to compare general operating efficiencies of the Persian bureaucracy with those of other nationalities. Nasseri admitted he was not familiar with working level operations in other ministries but felt that the Ministry of Labor operated as efficient as its British counterpart, but perhaps somewhat less efficient than its West German, French and U.S. counterparts.

Under Secretary for Planning and Research, Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs

Addressed as:
Mr. Nasseri

FereyduN Naseri, about 39, became Under Secretary for Planning and Research in the Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs on 22 May 1974. He had previously served in the Ministry as director general of employment. As such, he was mainly concerned with manpower planning matters and was active in promoting the idea of the creation of a separate and independent employment service.

Naseri has a master's degree in law, political science and economics from Tehran University and a doctorate in the same subjects from Toulouse University in France, and he came to the United States for a specialized training program in sociopolitical problems. He has taught law at Tehran University and has worked as an attorney in the Ministry of Justice and as an expert in the Plan and Budget Organization. After serving as a consultant to the Embassy in Washington, he returned to Iran to become director of the Bureau of Socio-Economic Studies and Research and Manpower in the Ministry of Labor.

Naseri has traveled in Western Europe. He speaks fluent English and French.
